Sending Forth of Eucharistic Visitors (when needed)

(in unison) In the name of this parish, we send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood. We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup.

Psalm 80:1-7, 16-18

(Spoken at 8:30; sung by cantor with congregational antiphon at 11:00.)

Re - store us, O God of hosts; show the light of your coun-te-nance, and we shall be saved.

1 Hear, O Shepherd of Israel, leading Joseph like a flock; * shine forth, you that are enthroned upon the cherubim.

2 In the presence of Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh, * stir up your strength and come to help us.

4 O LORD God of hosts. *

how long will you be angered

despite the prayers of your people?

Remember Adam's fall from heaven to hell, how we were condemned all in hell perpetual therefore to dwell.

Remember God's goodness and his promise made, how he sent his son doubtless our sins for to redress.

Be not afraid!

Give thanks to God alway with heart most joyfully on this his holy day.
Let all men sing and say,
Holy, Holy!

Words and music: Thomas Ravenscroft (1592-1633)

Presentation of Food for the Community Action Committee

V. The eyes of all wait upon you, O Lord;

R. And you give them their food in due season.

Let us pray (in unison): Almighty God, we offer this food in obedience to your command that we love our neighbors as ourselves, and that together we may know the fruits of faith, hope, and charity. Grant that as bodies are fed, so might spiritual hunger be satisfied as well through your Son Jesus Christ, who is the Bread of Life. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer (Contemporary)

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Communion:

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive Communion. Anyone may come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms across your chest. Gluten-free wafers are available; simply ask the priest. For the sake of public health, please drink from the chalice or decline it by crossing your arms across your chest.
