The Lord’s Prayer (Contemporary)

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

At the Breaking of the Bread: Hymnal, S-155

Communion:

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive Communion. Anyone may come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms across your chest. Gluten-free wafers are available; simply ask the priest. You may choose to receive the consecrated wine from the common cup to your left or from a chalice to share within your household to your right (placing the empty chalice on the table near the piano.)

Sending Forth of Eucharistic Visitors (when needed)

(in unison) In the name of this parish, we send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ’s body and blood. We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup.

From Robin & Julia Bates: In our 50 years together we have lived in at least seven different communities. Now for the second, and presumably last time, we have moved to Sewanee. When we first pledged to support each other in sickness and in health, we were in our young twenties and full of energy. Now in our early seventies, ‘til death do us part’ is no longer in the far distant future. Today we renew our vows, and we extend our commitment to our entire beloved community. Whether with poetry or lullabies or silence we will all walk together into that ultimate mystery.

CAC serves those in need with food and in other ways 9 to 11am, Monday through Friday. Please call 931-598-5927. Next Sunday is CAC Pantry Sunday and they are in need of canned chicken, cereal, paper towels, dish soap, and laundry detergent pods.

The Rev. Rob Lamborn began sabbatical on April 18, and will return to work July 5. The Rev. Scott Lee is his substitute with office hours Wednesday afternoon and Thursday morning. Senior Warden Lynn Taylor is Ecclesiastical Authority during the absence of the Rector. The office is open and staffed by Parish Administrator Frieda Hawkins 9am-4:30pm MWF and 9am-1pm TuTh.
