The Lord's Prayer (Contemporary)

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Communion of the People

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive Communion. Anyone may come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms across your chest. Gluten-free wafers are available; simply ask the priest. The consecrated wine is available from a chalice to share with in your household.

Sending Forth of Eucharistic Visitors (when needed)

(in unison) In the name of this parish, we send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood. We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup.

Connections for Parents: All parents and caregivers are invited to gather for conversation on Sunday mornings while the children have Sunday school. The class will meet on the front porch of Brooks Hall for fellowship, support, and reflection on the hopes we have for our children. This will include discussion of short passages from Looking for God in Messy Places: A Book About Hope, by the Rt. Rev. Jake Owensby. The book is available for purchase at the University Book Store or on Amazon. The Rev. Giulianna Cappelletti Gray, Priest Associate, is the facilitator for the meetings.

Youth Sunday School: 9:45-10:45am on the upstairs porch of Brooks Hall and/or in the upstairs youth room. Please bring a mask.

Godly Play for Children: Two Montessori-based classes meet 9:45-10:45am in the Godly Play rooms or outdoors, depending on weather and Covid risk. Please bring a mask.

This Sunday in Godly Play:

GP 1—The Books of the Bible: Teacher—Cheryl Lankhaar, Doorkeeper—Colin Rice

GP 2—The Story of Abraham: Teacher—Barbara Prunty, Doorkeeper—Aaron Elrod

The Sunday Forum will resume this Sunday at 9:45 –10:45. This week Julia Bates will lead the first session, Introduction to Community, exploring three questions: How do we form healthy relationships? How do relationships become communities? What elements differentiate communities? Bates is a lifelong educator with masters degrees in reading, school administration, and organizational theory. She taught for six years in public schools and 25 years composition instruction at the college level. She has also worked as a birth doula, childbirth educator, CASA volunteer, and in the nonprofit sector supporting community projects to promote healthy childhoods.

Nursery services Infants and toddlers through three year olds are invited to gather on the playground to form relationships with one another and have fun on Sunday mornings from 8:30 to noon. The nursery will be held at the playground of St. Mark and St. Paul, or in the child care classroom at the lower level of Claiborne Hall.

On August 28 after the second service, we will enjoy our annual Welcome Picnic. The picnic is one way we welcome newcomers to the mountain, and re-engage with one another after a summer of altered schedules. Expect games for all ages, great food, and relaxed conversation. Parish Life will be providing fried chicken, bread, chips, tea, and
